Scholarship awards open to El Camino College students through the Redondo Beach Lodge No. 1378 of the Elks were described today by Holmes Smith, assistant director of student personnel at the college, and A. T. Larson, chairman of the scholarship committee of the local Elks lodge.

"Applications for national awards, ranging from $900 to $400 each are open to high school and junior college students in our district," Larson said. "These applications will also be considered for two $300 scholarships which the Redondo Beach lodge awards each year to two students of

Students in the upper five per cent of their class are eligible for the awards, Sloan said. Further information may be obtained from the office of student personnel at the college, he added, concerning this scholarship and concerning others which are open to local students.

Beauty of style and harmony and grace and good rhythm depend on simplicity.

Six-Year-Old Enjoys Party On Birthday

Fourteen of her friends were on hand last Thursday to fete Jorie Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham of 1923 Reynosa Drive, when she celebrated her sixth birthday with a party at her home.

A pink, heart-shaped cake formed the center-piece of the luncheon table. Fancy heart-shaped sandwiches, milk, ice cream and cake were served to the youngsters.

Favors of party snappers, colored hats, handkerchiefs and Valentine candies were given to the children as they watched a showing of several cartoon films.

Foreign Students Present Panel Discussion at Meet

An international relations panel discussion, featuring three foreign exchange students from Pepperdine College, highlighted Tuesday's meeting of the Torrance Council of P-TA's held at the First Christian Church of Torrance.

Yoko Kay Takayama of Japan, Iraj Fakhrieh of Iran and Christos Hadjithimlou of Greece related incidents from their life and education in their native countries under the direction of Dr. Woodrow Whitten, head of the social science department of the college.

Following the discussion, Elmer S. Moon, past president of Torrance High School P-TA, presented state citizenship chairman. Luncheon followed under the chairmanship of Mrs. M. B. Millar.

P-TA Plan Party Week March 2-6

A "surprise hostess" party week is being planned by the 186th St. P-TA. Mrs. James McMillen has been named chairman of the party committee.

The surprise parties are to be held the week of March 2 through March 6. On each day a party of P-TA members will pay a visit to the home of another member. The program is a combination money making and get-acquainted project, it was revealed.
